On Christmas Day Mr. W. A. Ross, secretary and auditor of the Fort Worth rome to the Fort Worth Pharmacy com-and Denver City Railway, was presented pany, corner of Fifth and Main streets. with an elegant piece of furniture.

It took the shape of a reclining chair, and was the joint gift of the employes of the auditing department and Admiral Sir George Strong (late of her Britannie majesty's ships Griffon and Pinafore) now cashier of the Denver. Sir George should have made the presentation speech, but at the last moment his chronic bashfulness and phenominal taciturnity overpowered him, and the duty fell to Mr. G. C. Rivers. He also seemed full of emotion and collapsed after his speech, but was revived by the sound of a bottle suddenly de-flowered of its virtue by a corkserew. Mr. Ross received the chair in his usual quiet manner, and after gracefully expressing his thanks for such a mark of the esteem and appreciation of | playing them is not quite clear. the gentlemen in his office, suggested refreshments.

THE GLASS SLIPPER CLUB.

The Second Meeting of the Club at Dr. W. T. Ferguson's Residence.

The Glass Slipper club held its second meeting Wednesday night at the residence of Dr. W. T. Ferguson, ex-county treasurer, the club being entertained by his charming grand children, Misses Edith and Sanie Turner. Instrumental and vocal music, dancing and the discussion of refreshments made the evening pass very pleasantly. Those present were: Daisy Jones, May Tinnon, Annabel Cooper, Katle Vaughn, Ursa Hall, Virginia Wilson, Minnie Geer, Amanda Estill, Bessie Anderson, Bessie Feild, Flora Anderson, Etta Boaz, Bettie Jacks, Pearl Holland, Minnie Butts, Anna Tidball, Edith Turner, Nathalie Hoelzle, Ollie Hastings, Sanie Turner, and Messrs, Horace Luckett, Merrel Es-till, Hugh Wilson, Will Jones, Will Tackabery, Will Massie, Will Holmes, Will Geer, Maddison Jones, Joe Hunt, Tom Rowen, Archie Martin, Guy Maddox, Horace Hunter.

What Does It Mean?

A certain prominent banker yesterday received an express package (charges prepaid) from Boston. The Gazette is told that when the same was delivered it so happened that the said banker was entertaining a few friends in his private office. The mysterious-looking package present, and the good friends were anxious to learn of its contents, as the best table between Fort Worth and El Paso. It was conducted.

By a left to the first five drummers to disconducted.

Town property is more in demand to day than ever before.

Cided in favor of his table. banker friend was quite eloquent in his remarks upon the goodness of some one in remembering him, when, lo! on raising the lid of this mysterious parcel, the first article to meet his eye was a pair of lady's shoes (badly worn), a bottle of whisky, three decks of cards and one set of poker dice.

To say our banker friend fainted would be putting it mildly. On his recovery the air in his office was blue—a dark blue. It is said that his explanations are regarded by his friends as very unsatisfactory. He has since exhausted his bank ecount in his efforts to quiet the bays, failing to do that, he has left the city.

An Eloper Jailed. Charles Densmore and a Mrs. Boaz skipped out together from a point some came to this city. They were followed here and information lodged against them. Densmore was arrested and thrown into jail and the officers tried until a late hour last night to find the woman, but she was spirited away and made her escape. She is described as being about twenty-eight years old and very handsome.

Suing the Railroads.

Three damage suits were filed in the district court yesterday against as many different railroads. J. A. Mugg sued the St. Louis, Arkansas and Texas for $15,-000 for damage received in the Marine wreck on Tuesday evening. C. H. Higby asks the same amount from the Texas and Pacific for dam-age done in burning grass and hay and destroying sod on some 1400 acres of land, Mrs. J. M. Farmer wants $14,000 from the Texas and Pacific. # A Delightful Surprise.

Last night about 7 o'clock a party of young ladies and gentlemen met at the residence of Mr. and Mrs. T. P. Martin, on Florence between Second and Third streets. The party marched in a body to the residence of Dr. and Mrs. J. Field on West Belknap street, the occasion being complimentary to Miss Bessie, one of their charming daughters. The young hostess entertained her friends in the most charming manner until a late honr, when she served her friends with the most delicious refreshments. The evening was spent in dancing and games of various kinds. The young folks spent a delightful evening.
